LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun rises to-morrow at 5:27; and sets 6:33. High water 0.44 a. m. and 1.10 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section generally fair, probably followed by showers Tuesday afternoon; variable winds becoming southerly; slightly warmer.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE F. A. REED. The funeral of the late F. A. Reed, which took place yesterday afternoon, was one of the largest ever held in this city. Old Dominion Commandery, Knights Templar, and Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons, of which organizations the deceased was a member, turned out in force, and with the large number of friends and acquaintances formed an imposing pageant. The remains were taken to the Second Presbyterian Church about half-past four o'clock. Every seat in the church was filled. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. McAllister, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, and during the service a quartette of male voices rendered the dirges. Mr. McAllister paid a fitting tribute to the memory of the deceased, and after the religious services in the church, the funeral cortege, escorted by the members of Old Dominion Commandery, Washington Lodge, and Jackson Lodge of Masons, with the members of the Grand Lodge of Virginia in hack, preceded the hearse, moved to the old Presbyterian Cemetery, where the body was committed to the ground by the Grand Lodge, with the full Masonic ceremonial. Mr. William H. Lambert, past grand master, reading the burial service in a most touching manner, and in the eyes of many of the Masons, stood tears of sorrow as they dropped their sprig of green on the coffin of their deceased brother. The following members of both Masonic lodges acted as pallbearers: Mr. John R. Chapman, Mr. Frank Corbett, Mr. Walter Whitley, Mr. William Reardon, Mr. Henry Field, and Mr. Joseph Grimes. Knights John H. Fisher, James E. Alexander, Carroll Ashby, A. Drummond, Albert G. Uhler, J. V. Davis, George Steiner, and Edgar Warfield, sr., were guards of honor from the Old Dominion Commandery, K. T. Some ten or twelve members of the Grand Lodge were present and took part in the funeral service. With them were the following acting general officers: A. R. Courtney, of Richmond, grand master; William Ryan, of Richmond, deputy grand master; J. P. Corbin, of Fredericksburg, grand senior warden; Julius Strauss, of Richmond, grand junior warden; J. B. Blanks, of Petersburg, grand treasurer; S. Metz Fisher, of Richmond, grand secretary; K. Kemper, of Alexandria, grand chaplain; James A. Cosby, of Richmond, grand senior deacon, and William C. Wilkerson, of Richmond, grand junior deacon. Major George Duffley acted as marshal for Andrew Jackson Lodge.

CARL BROWNE ON THE STUMP.—The neighborhood of King and St. Asaph streets was packed Saturday night with people who had gathered to see and hear Carl Browne, the coveyite. Browne at about eight o'clock straightened up from the tail end of a wagon and his wife took a seat on the front with her back to her husband. Browne was dressed in a coat which looked as though it had been made from a hippopotamus hide. His unmentionables were held in position by a belt and he was attired in a sheet embellished with transverse bars. He began his speech by defining the rights of mankind under the constitution of the United States, spoke in commiseration of Debs who, he thought, had been arbitrarily dealt with, denounced money barons and corporations as leeches upon the body politic and excoriated the Alexandria Water Company. After he had spent himself he proceeded to sell some illustrated papers in which the Rothschilds and others were caricatured as octopuses absorbing everybody and everything within reach. Taken all in all the address was tame and illogical, and so far as known no proselytes were made. The police had been instructed to bring the performance to an abrupt close should Browne preach incendiarism or any of the radical notions of modern agitators.

POLICE COURT.—Justice Thompson presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Mat. Williams, arrested by officer Griffin for being drunk on the chain gang, had ten days added to his sentence.

Geo. Scott, colored, arrested by officer Howson charged with larceny, was held.

Samuel Drownes, arrested by Watchman Samuel Henry charged with trespassing upon the property of W. A. Smoot & Co., was dismissed; the charge being withdrawn.

Daniel Peterson, colored, arrested by Officer Ferguson, and Hall charged with assaulting Girty Piper, colored, was fined $3.

Alice Jones, colored, arrested by officers Jones and Deane charged with larceny of money on complaint of E. M. Miller, was fined $5, or given 30 days in jail.

Three colored women, charged with fighting and indecent conduct, were $2 each.

Several persons, charged with keeping unlicensed dogs, were fined $1 each. Night Report.—Last night was clear and mild. One prisoner and one lodger were at the station house.

OFF FOR BOSTON.—A number of the members of Old Dominion Commandery, Knights Templar, with a number of ladies left here yesterday morning at 8 o'clock en route to Boston to attend the grand encampment of the order. Another party of the knights, who remained to attend the funeral of the late F. A. Reed, left last night at 10:52 o'clock and will arrive in Boston today. The names of the members of the commandery and the others who went appeared in the GAZETTE on Saturday. All the trains from the South passing through the city are carrying large parties of the knights.

SALE OF A PAPER.—The property of the Washington News Publishing Company was sold at auction Saturday afternoon under a deed of trust. There were only two bids, and the plant was knocked down to John G. Slater, treasurer of the company, for $60,700, which includes existing trusts of $50,200. There will be no change of management.

Some of the lawyers have become inspired with a spirit of improvement and are handsomely improving their offices.

SERVICES AT CHRIST CHURCH YESTERDAY.

The sad conviction that the beloved rector of this church was nearing his end made the services at the church particularly solemn and affecting. It was felt by his parishioners who were in town that the comfort and support of the sacred worship of the house of prayer was most fitting at such a time. Every one knew that it was possible that Dr. Suter might pass away during the hour of service, so it was arranged that in case the sad announcement should be made the bell should at once be tolled for fifteen minutes. The accustomed services of the church were held, without any music, except for the hymns. These were "Jerusalem the Golden," "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," and "There is a Blessed Home." They were softly and beautifully sung by the choir. Rev. Mr. Wallis said he felt that he could not enter the pulpit as he desired the congregation to realize that their beloved rector was still with them in spirit, delivering his last message to them, which was now his support and comfort. "The blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin." He would only say a few words in harmony with the solemnity of the occasion. Shortly after he commenced to speak, Mr. J. C. Herndon came in and made a sign that Mr. Suter had departed, and Mr. Leadbeater, the senior warden, ordered the bell to be tolled. While it solemnly announced the passing of their rector's spirit to rest, the prayer for Christ's Church militant in the communion service and another appropriate prayer were read by Mr. Wallis. There was not a dry eye in the congregation. After a few closing words the services were concluded by the benediction and all felt indeed that the peace of God which passeth all understanding had been with them in the old church. Prayers were offered for Mr. Suter and his family in the Protestant churches of the city. The bell of the church was tolled at 6 o'clock last night, also at 6 this morning, and will be tolled this evening at 6 and again at the same hour to-morrow morning as a token of respect to the deceased rector.

MR. JOHN HABBICK, a talented young lawyer from Pasadena, California, will speak at the Union Mission tent this evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Habbick is a very interesting and spirited speaker and will not fail to interest all who hear him. Another interesting feature of the meeting this evening will be a special song service by the mission choir. This choir, which was such a great attraction at the last meeting, has chosen Mr. Renner as their leader and instructor, and under his direction they have learned a great many new and spirited gospel songs, which they sing nightly to the enjoyment of the large audiences, and also do themselves great credit. Everybody is invited to come to-night and enjoy the benefit of this special effort. All are welcome.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire at 11:25 o'clock to-day was caused by the slight burning of the roof of Mr. James McCuen's soda water bottling establishment on Gibson street, near Alfred.

The fire was caused by sparks dropping on the roof, but the flames were put out by the Relief extinguisher before much damage had been done. The fire engines promptly responded and were in readiness, but their services were not needed.

THE RACES AT ST. ASAPH this evening resulted as follows:

First race 6 furlongs.—Gaiety won, Jack Denison second, Sir Rae third. Time 1:21.

Second race, 4 furlongs.—May Pinkerton won, Cadiz second, Baccarat third. Time 50.

In the second race Lady Watson and Higbie fell and one of the jockeys was badly hurt.

The sudden sickness of a baby on the half-past six o'clock boat from Washington yesterday evening caused much sympathy for the distressed mother. Dr. Holden, of Washington, who was aboard, alleviated the child, and when the boat reached this city it appeared to be much better.

The excursion of the teachers and scholars of St. Mary's Sunday school to River View to-morrow for the benefit of their church promises to be a success in every particular. All who attend may be assured of spending an enjoyable day. A moonlight trip to Indian Head will be a special feature of the occasion.

Captain Webster this morning received a dispatch from Saginaw, Michigan, announcing that Wm. Schmidt, who is charged with stealing the race horse Reef from the St. Asaph stables last fall, had been captured in that city. The county authorities have been notified and steps will be taken to bring Schmidt to Virginia.

It is rumored that an attempt was made Saturday night to set on fire the portion of Mr. George Jones's property which escaped the conflagration of last week. Some say the incendiaries were negroes, and that a lady residing in one of the houses threw a flatiron at one of them. The fiends, finding they were discovered, retreated in the direction of Colross and escaped.

Ex-Mayor Henry Strauss, of this city, has purchased from Messrs. Leterman Bros. a desirable building lot on Main street, Charlottesville. Upon it will be commenced at once the erection of a handsome and modern three-story business house, which will be occupied by Mr. Phil. Leterman, son-in-law of Mr. Strauss, as a clothing store.

Levi W. Hoffman was arrested by Robert M. McCuen, Special Constable of Fairfax county, on Saturday for assault and battery on Albert Price, Sarah Robinson and others during the picnic given by the Alfred street Baptist Sunday school on Thursday last, and was put under bail of $100 to appear before Justice Kerby, of Fairfax county, on September 3d.

The churches yesterday were fairly well attended. Rev. S. A. Wallis conducted services at Christ Church, Rev. Mr. Summerman and Dr. Walker at St. Paul's, Mr. G. F. Williams at Grace, and Rev. J. R. Graham at the Second Presbyterian. The other pulpits were filled by the resident clergy. In consequence of the choir of St. Mary's Catholic Church going to Fredericksburg there was no vesper service in that church.

James Lucas, alias Hayden, colored, is held in Georgetown as a horse thief for the Virginia authorities. Lucas rode a stolen horse into Georgetown from Rosslyn last week, and following him came a communication from the Alexandria county authorities to look out for the same horse, which had been stolen from Richard Darns. When captured Lucas did not have the horse and said it had run away. He was locked up and yesterday Detective Burrows recovered the horse.

William Horton, a farmer from Centreville, Fairfax county, went to Washington Saturday and bought a new suit of clothes, a pair of shoes and a hat. Finally becoming tired Horton in his new suit lay down under a tree in the Smithsonian Park to take a nap. A 22 values during last week. About 44, without any reason, perhaps, except the general report that very little was going out of the country. Our own southern crop, however, finds a ready market with local millers for all prime samples, which are taken at full market prices as soon as exhibited. The good qualities are sold on their merits. Corn continues very quiet—locally this is attributed to want of water to run the mills; one miller reported this morning he had less water in his mill race than he had seen for 40 years. The continued dry weather is cutting down the crop of corn very short. Some farmers are now cutting to save the crop for feed in the shape of fodder. Bye and Oats are unchanged.
